Featuring the Views at Powder Ridge

Micro Weddings at Powder Ridge

Small weddings are trending—and it's not just because they're easier on the wallet. Couples are opting for a more intimate celebration to get quality face time with each guest as well as create a more relaxed, casual vibe. But casual doesn't have to mean simple. At Powder Ridge Park there are many ways to craft a bite-sized event that's brimming with custom-curated details!

With 255 acres on Powder Ridge Mountain, you will be surrounded by natural beauty and picturesque views. Imagine arriving to your mountaintop ceremony in a chairlift as your guests wait by our gazebo or pondside with mountain views and lush landscape.

Our micro weddings are custom designed to ensure an unforgettable, stress-free ceremony with your handpicked team of experienced professionals, officiant, florist and photographer. Then let the celebration continue with your cocktail reception and cake cutting held in the private dining area of Fire at The Ridge restaurant. Powder Ridge's micro weddings creates your day, your way with unforgettable memories.
